{2012 GCIOPA National Reunion Public Lecture Note, Delivered By Victor O. Olunloyo (Grier, 1948)}

. . . I would otherwise not be a GCI boy if that were so. When you think of Okunroumu in Harvard, Aboderin in Yale or Akinwande in M.I.T etc, you know what I plainly assent about GCI . . . Any attentive listener must have noticed that we have woven two strands of material from the topic given. Moreover, we have knit the strands together. We have shown that Nigeria is under . . .

• The Death of a Chicken

. . . To be sure, it was some relief to have an excuse to get away for a while from quadratic equations and dy/dx , yet no one can seriously say that the fate that eventually befell the chicken was premeditated. The boys certainly were not out chicken hunting. Rather, what ensued was a spontaneous reaction driven by . . .

• What Is This?

This month's poser is still Last Month's poser. It shouldn't also be too difficult for any sociable old boy, more than 55 years old. First to name it wins a mug from the Museum Shop. Where are the party animals of the 60s and 70s ? Apparently they had only been acting. Where are the "omo ebo" boys we looked up to in awe ? Where are the collectors of the latest single records of The Beatles, Otis Reddings, Jimi Hendrix, Sly Stone, James Brown..etc ? ..Oops!
